Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd R. Loughlin has been employed at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Fort Meade, South Dakota, as a highly skilled and professional carpenter since September 21, 1971; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd Carpenter is a devoted husband to his wife, Elizabeth, and a good father to their nine children; and,

WHEREAS, On March 2, after almost 19 years of service to the medical center and this great state, Lloyd is retiring and taking time to camp and fish; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this dedicated South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 2, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and relatives in wishing him good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
